

The West Virginia Soccer Association provides many resources for our players, coaches, referees, administrators, and parents. Here is a partial list of those services:

- Our first resource is our website: www.wvsoccer.net. Most of our information is available there.
- We produce a lot of content on our social media platforms. You can find us at:
 - Facebook: www.facebook.com/wvsoccer
 - Twitter: Follow us @wvsoccer
 - Instagram: Follow us @wvsoccer
 - SnapChat: Follow us @wvsoccer
 - TikTok: Follow us @wvsoccer
- We also have a YouTube channel where we post a lot of videos on coaching education, nutrition, injury prevention, hydration, better sleep, mental health, and many other topics. You can find out channel at: <https://www.youtube.com/user/wvsoccerassociation>
- We also have a weekly podcast called “WVSA Beyond The Pitch Podcast”. A new episode debuts every Thursday morning. This 20-30 minute, no-fluff podcast deals with many subjects important to coaches, players, referees, administrators, and parents. It is available on Apple Podcasts, Google Podcasts, Spotify, Tune In and more.
- WVSA looks to honor grassroots (recreation) volunteers every week with our “WVSA Grassroots Person of the Week”. Nominate someone today for this great honor. For more information, click this link: http://www.wvsoccer.net/about_us/wvsa_grassroots_person_of_the_week/
- WVSA also provides continuing education for our soccer coaches of all levels through grassroots courses and webinars. For more information on upcoming courses, click here: http://www.wvsoccer.net/coaching_education/upcoming_courses/
- WVSA also provides continuing education for our soccer referees of all levels through workshops and webinars. For more information on our WVSA Referee Program, click here: <http://www.wvsareferees.org>.
- WVSA has hosted and will continue to host a series of webinars on a variety of subjects, like injury prevention, nutrition, coaching education, mental wellness, etc. However, all our webinars are available on demand after the live webinar. You can find the on demand webinars at this link: http://www.wvsoccer.net/resources/wvsa_digital_network_series/
- WVSA looks to honor our volunteers, coaches, administrators, and referees with our annual “WVSA End of the Year Awards”. We usually accept nominations beginning in June. Winners are announced in October and awards are presented in early March every year. For more information, click this link: http://www.wvsoccer.net/resources/award_nominations/
- Every year, WVSA inducts a handful of people into our WVSA Hall of Fame. These folks have given of themselves to the sport of soccer in our state to the youth game (grassroots/travel) as well as the adult amateur game. We host our awards every March at various location throughout the state. For more information, click here: http://www.wvsoccer.net/about_us/hall_of_fame/
- WVSA is proud to offer the WVSA Olympic Development Program. There are three main objectives of the Olympic Development Program are 1) To have players recognized for their playing ability and advance to the Regional and possibly the National level 2) To promote a sense of confidence and independence in each player as they advance within our program 3) To develop and maintain a training environment that promotes learning and player development. For more information on the WVSA ODP program, click this link: http://www.wvsoccer.net/odp/odp_information/
- WVSA provides Risk Management and Safe Soccer information as we work to keep our members safe on and off the field. For more information click this link: http://www.wvsoccer.net/youth/wvsa_risk_management_link/
